Strategy is a coherent plan to achieve a goal that will lead to significant positive change

What significant , positive change is it trying to about?

Strategy is a coherent plan to achieve a goal that will lead to the goal is achievable significant positive change

How does he show